

Newsletter December 2009

Dec 2, 2009 --

In this edition: Welcome from the Chair, CAUTHE 2010 update, PhD Workshop Update, Special Edition of the Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Management, ALTC Project, Invitation to join CAUTHE via our On-line Shop

Welcome from the CAUTHE Chair

Welcome to the final CAUTHE newsletter for 2009.

Colleagues in the School of Management at the University of Tasmania have been busy with the organisation of the 2010 CAUTHE conference to be held on 9-11 February 2010. This promises to be an exciting and valuable meeting of academic minds in Hobart in February and we look forward to catching up with you when we "close the loop" for CAUTHE conferences at the 20th annual CAUTHE 2010 conference at the Grand Chancellor Hotel, Hobart.

At the 2010 AGM CAUTHE will be voting to expand its constitution to welcome New Zealand universities to join the CAUTHE family.

CAUTHE is again holding the Bill Faulkner PhD Workshop prior to the CAUTHE conference. All PhD students are encouraged to attend. In this edition we give you an update on the PhD Workshop.

We also let you know about a special edition of the Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Management and finally, we invite you tell others about joining CAUTHE via our online shop.

Now we are off to the Apple Island - Tasmania. Watch out for those Tassie devils!

Cheers,

Paul A Whitelaw
CAUTHE Chair

CAUTHE 2010 UPDATE

'Challenge the Limits of Tourism and Hospitality'

The response to call for papers has been great and more than 170 abstracts and full papers have been received.

Professor Pauline Sheldon will present the keynote speech, which will reflect upon the development and future of hospitality and tourism education and the challenges it faces.

We would like to invite those of you or your colleagues who are not members to join or renew your membership of CAUTHE.

Your involvement will assist us further develop the association and range of benefits for our members.

The benefits of Associate (individual) membership currently include:

- CAUTHE 2010 conference registration reduction of $90 for the early bird (valid until 31 December 2009) or $100 from the standard fee.
- Listing of expertise and areas of interest on our website including a link to your own webpage.
- Up to date news and information via our online CAUTHE Newsletter.
- Access to the online Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Management by registering here.
- Use of the CAUTHE mailing list.
- Access to the Members Only section of the CAUTHE website.
- Other benefits as listed on our website.

Associate membership is AUD$100.00

Joining is easy and pay using our secure online shop.