2. OVERVIEW

2.1 Background and description

The theme of the CAUTHE 2018 conference was Get Smart: Paradoxes and Possibilities in Tourism, Hospitality and Events. This theme encouraged researchers to engage a critical lens on the creation and generation of knowledge in tourism, hospitality and events. For the first time at the CAUTHE workshops we combined ECR and MCA participants for the afternoon session.

CAUTHE 2018 Workshops Evaluation

Thank you for participating in the CAUTHE 2018 PhD/ECR/MCA Workshops in Newcastle, Australia. It is our aim to continually improve the Workshops to support PhD/ECR/MCA participants in their career development.

We would be grateful if you could complete the following survey. It should take no more than five minutes, and your responses are anonymous.

On behalf of the CAUTHE Executive and the CAUTHE 2018 Organising Committee, we thank you for your feedback.

5. KEY INSIGHTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

TBC – data pending on Tamara’s return ☺

Note – for 2019 we are running the mentoring sessions based on feedback from CAUTHE fellows which will see 2 mentors to 5 attendees to provide a broader “advice” panel.
